A message from your 2017

Class Officers

To the Class of 2017:

As we leave Tri-County to begin the next chapter of our lives, we contemplate the lessons we have learned as we look back at our amazing four years. Some of us will pursue higher education, others will enter the military, and still others will pursue careers in their chosen vocational fields. Thanks to the help and support of our teachers and classmates, we have come away with the tools and skills necessary to seize every opportunity put before us. We have what it takes to become successful members of society.

Tri-County challenged us, but always provided us with friendships and memories that will last a lifetime. As we continue down our distinctive paths leading us into the future, we will always remember the moments we have shared as a class. We may face adversities on our journeys, but these lessons, memories and friendships will lift us, and enable us to persevere through difficult times.

Each one of us will go on to pursue our unique goals, both personal and professional. Although we may not be able to predict the future of the world which we live, we can keep a positive outlook on life, be the best models for others, and make the most of what we have learned.

As our high school days come to a close, we leave you with a very simple but important question:....What will you be remembered for?

Congratulations!

Best Regards,
Zachary Currier, President
Brianna Santiago, Vice President
William Galligan, Treasurer
Danielle Dauphinee, Secretary

In Loving Memory

Quinton Buehrens

April 1, 1999-April 28, 2015

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun of happy memories
that I leave behind when day is done.

Jojo, Wow!

The time has come and you are graduating. I am overwhelmed with emotions and goosebumps as I write this. It seems like yesterday I was holding your little hand in the NICU not knowing if I was going to be able to watch you grow up. You are a fighter and have always been! I always have and always will be by your side and believe in you. I hope you will always believe in yourself and continue to work towards your goals and dreams! You are loved so much and have filled my life with so much happiness and laughter.

The world is a better place with your smile in it. You are one of a kind and I couldn't be more proud to call you my daughter!

"You are my sunshine...9:27"

Love always - Mum

Hannah Phoenix

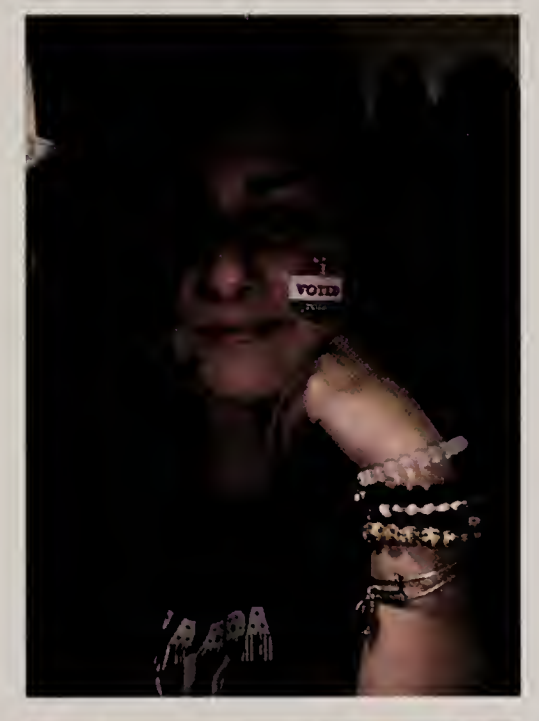
CONGRATULATIONS HANNAH PHOENIX!

We are so proud of you. We have watched you grow from an adorable little girl to a beautiful young woman.

The mightiest oak in the forest is just a little nut that held its ground.

This is a quote that you got in a fortune cookie. When you read it out loud, dad and I looked at each other and thought… that so appropriately describes our Hannah. From an early age, you have never let anyone define you. You have always done your own thing and never tried to conform for the sake of conforming, whether it's your style of dress, hair color, taste in music, etc. You never followed the pack; you have always maintained your independence and uniqueness.

You have an intelligence that you do not even realize, a sense of humor that can keep us laughing until our sides hurt, and boundless passion and loyalty for the things and the people that you care about. Even though you have a tough exterior shell, those who truly know you, know your heart is pure, loving, and compassionate.



Since you were a little girl, you were determined to save the world. You always stand up for the underdog and help those who cannot help themselves, including the animals, reptiles, and insects of the world. When you are away at College, who is going to remove the spiders from the house unharmed and save the snakes from drowning in the rain wells?

Your poetry and short stories give us a glimpse into your depth of spirit and ethereal soul. You have chosen an honorable profession…High School English Teacher…it suits you well…we know that you will inspire your students as you have inspired us.

You started out as our little nut and now you are that mighty oak. Your branches continuing to grow but always outstretched, either reaching for the stars or sheltering a friend in need. We know that you will accomplish great things and make the world a better place…and that no matter what path you take, you will line it with daisies.

We Love you,
Dad, Mom, Zach, and Noble

Kelsey Morin

"You're off to great places!
Today is your day!
Your mountain is waiting
So get on your way!"
-Dr. Seuss

Congratulations Zachary Marcotte!
We're so proud of you!
Oh, the places you'll go!
Love,
The Gang, Memere & Lolo

Gavin Croce

Chase every dream, cross every stream.
Let nothing keep you from your goals. This graduation is an ending and a new beginning.
We are so very proud of you and all your hard work.

Congratulations!!!
Love,
Mom & Dad, Grandma, Grammie & Papa and family

Natasha Saviano

To Our Beautiful Daughter
